GOSPEL

A reading from the gospel according to Luke 20:27-38

The Sadducees did not believe that people would rise to life after death. So some of them came to Jesus and said:

"Teacher, Moses wrote that if a married man dies and has no children, his brother should marry the widow. Their first son would then be thought of as the son of the dead brother.

"There were once seven brothers. The first one married, but died without having any children. The second one married his brother's widow, and he also died without having any children. The same thing happened to the third one. Finally, all seven brothers married that woman and died without having any children. At last the woman died.

"When God raises people from death, whose wife will this woman be? All seven brothers had married her."

Jesus answered:

"The people in this world get married. But in the future world no one who is worthy to rise from death will either marry or die. They will be like the angels and will be God's children, because they have been raised to life.

In the story about the burning bush, Moses clearly shows that people will live again.

He said, 'The Lord is the God worshipped by Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' So the Lord is not the God of the dead, but of the living. This means that anyone is alive as far as God is concerned."

The gospel of the Lord.

R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

I wonder why the Sadducees wanted to challenge Jesus...

I wonder what the Sadducees were thinking after listening to Jesus..
